Preacher: Reverend Paul Murray

[0:00] Good afternoon, a warm welcome to the service this afternoon. It's good to see all of you and it's good to have Paul from Kinloch with us taking the Gaelic service today.

The only part of the service that's going to be in English is the introduction really and maybe a word or two to help us to find the Psalms. But it's good to have you Paul, thank you for being willing to come and open God's Word with us.
The service is over the next couple of days. We have the evening service tonight at 7 o'clock and there will be a fellowship in the manse afterwards for any, all invited.
And tomorrow we have the service at 7 o'clock, a prayer meeting, time of prayer and the Word will be opened and again that will be led by Professor Janangus.
And then on the Lord's Day morning at 11 and evening at 6 and again the service will be led by Janangus. There will be a fellowship both tomorrow night and on Sunday night as well.
[1:03] So the session will be opened at the end of this service and any who know the Lord, who trust in the Lord, who haven't yet come forward to profess faith, be encouraged to do so, to come and speak to myself or any of the elders at the end of the service.

These I think are all the intimations now. I'll hand over now to Paul. Thank you. Thank you. Psalm 40.
From the beginning of the psalm. Shh.
