Preacher: Reverend Donald John Morrison

[0:00] Well good afternoon everyone and a warm welcome to the service today it's good to see all of you and it's good to have the Reverend Don John with us today I'm delighted that he's willing to come and open God's word for us and we welcome him as I welcome all of you as we come together in the name of Jesus.

One or two notices just to say that the service this evening will be at 7 God willing the weather forecast doesn't look quite as bad as it first was reported to be 7 o'clock this evening and then an invitation for anybody to come back to the manse is open and that service will be taken by Reverend Malcolm McLean assuming that he comes over on the ferry.

Just now so we can be praying about that also. The services over the weekend will be taking the rest of the services by Malcolm tomorrow evening at 7 and then on the Lord's Day at 11 and 6 as usual.

The session will open at the end of the service today anybody who knows the Lord and who trusts the Lord and hasn't yet professed faith in Jesus the call the command of Jesus is clear to come and do this take the bread take the wine to remember him.

The session will be very happy to meet with anybody who wishes to do so. These I think are all the notices so I will hand over now to Don John. Thanks David.
