Preacher: Donald John Morrison (dan Marig)

[0 : 00] Good evening and a warm welcome to the Gaelic service tonight. There's a verse that says always be prepared to give a reason for the hope that's in you and sometimes you don't get much notice for giving reason for the hope that's in you and so tonight Dan Marig, Don John Morrison is going to stand in a very short notice to take this Gaelic service. Hamish Taylor was due to be here and I don't know what's happened.

He hasn't appeared which is not at all like him. So Dan has agreed at a very short notice to step in so we're very thankful to Dan or you'd have had a non-Gaelic message just now.

So I'm just going to pray before I hand over and ask for the Lord's blessing. Our Heavenly Father we thank you for your goodness to us, we thank you for your grace, we thank you for your love of us and we thank you for the message of the Gospel.

We thank you that our hope is found in nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness. We thank you that we stand on Christ the solid rock everywhere else is sinking sand.

And Lord you have given us the eyes to see Jesus, you have given us the ears to hear Jesus, you have opened our hearts that we have been able to by faith take hold of the message of the Gospel.

[1 : 33] And we praise you that this is the work of God the Holy Spirit, this is not something that we can do in and of ourselves. And also you have given us this commission, whoever we are, wherever we are, whether standing at a lectern or whether in conversation in the duties of everyday life, you've called us to share the message of the Gospel.

And we pray that you would help us to do that in every opportunity that you give to us. We pray that you would be with Dan just now, we thank you for him, and we thank you for his willingness and his readiness to speak of Jesus and his love.

So as you call Lord, we pray that you would equip him, and that he and we together would know the presence of the Holy Spirit in this place. Speak into our hearts, we pray.

May Jesus be lifted up and we be drawn to Christ in this hour. And we pray this in Jesus' name and for his sake. Amen. Thank you, Dan. I'll hand over.

Thank you. My name is John. I'm raised in Jesus' name and I'm raised in Jesus' name and I'm raised in Jesus' name and I'm raised in Jesus' name. Psalm 61.

[2 : 54] uhm Thank you.
