Preacher: Reverend Donald Macdonald

[0 : 00] Good afternoon. A warm welcome to the service this afternoon. It's good to see those who are here and are conscious that there are some who are struggling with their health and are watching online as well.

It's good to have the Revit Donald with us, who's a well-known friend of the congregation here. We're grateful for your coming and battling through a cold.

And we pray that the Lord will help you and speak to us through you over this hour. The services today, we've got the services this morning and then the evening service at 7, which will be taken by Ian and Pitchy, a Gaelic service, and then an invitation to the match for any of you to be able to come.

And the services tomorrow at 7 o'clock, a peer meeting, a service which Ian again will bring God's word to us at.

And then on Sunday, the services at usual time, 11 and 6. And we'll gather around the Lord's table in the morning. The only other thing to say is that the session is going to be opened at the end of the service today.

[1 : 15] And we'll meet just in the room to my left. And if there are any of you who know the Lord, who trust the Lord, but haven't yet professed faith openly or come to the table, please hear the invitation to come, the encouragement to come and to remember the Lord Jesus.

These, I think, are all the notes that I saw handled overnight. Psalm 77 and at verse 13.
