 And the people. and the people. And the people. We pray for. And the people. And the people. And the people.
 [ 64 : 37 ] And the people. And the people. who are grieving.
 Went on into that place. That has been prepared by Jesus. We believe because they were able to say. That the Lord was their shepherd.
 We thank you for the comfort that that brings. And we pray for that comfort for those who are grieving. We pray for those who are battling with addictions. We thank you for the strength that you have given to many.
 To remain firm. We pray for others you might be waking up this morning. Having fallen and having failed. Feeling that they can't go on. We ask that they would look to you.
 As we bring them to you. We pray for those who are in their homes just now. Some who are isolating because they are waiting for tests.

[ 65 : 49 ] Others who are isolating because that is the nature of their lives day by day. They are housebound and they are lonely. And we pray that they may know your presence and your peace.

And we pray for those who are sick. As we have prayed already. And we ask that you would lay your hands of healing upon them. And we pray for many who are not sick.

And who are not lonely. And who do not have many of the troubles that this world recognizes as trouble. But who have no desire for Christ and no sense of their sin.

And we pray that you would awaken them. We pray that in this year. We would see those who are still dead. In transgression and sin.

Being brought to life. We pray that in this year. We may see those that we have prayed for week by week. For so many weeks and so many years.

[ 66 : 50 ] Coming to faith in Christ. And being born again. So hear our prayers. And help us as we continue into this year.

And we pray all these things in Jesus name. Amen. We'll sing to conclude the words on the screen. Mission Praise 51. Be thou my vision. O Lord of my heart.

Not be all else to be saved that thou art. O my best God.

By day or by night. Waking or sleeping. Thy presence my eye.

Be thou my wisdom. Thou my true word. I am with thee.

[ 68 : 16 ] Thou with me, Lord. Thou my great Father. I like to serve.

Thou in me dwelling. And I with thee one. Be thou my battle.

Shield sword for the fight. Be thou my dignity. Thou my delight.

Thou my soul sheltered. Thou my light of. Raise now. And grace thou be holy word.

O power of my power. Riches I heed not your unsent grace, Thou my inheritance now and always.

[ 69 : 24 ] Thou art the holy first in my heart, I King of heaven, I treasure the heart.

I King of heaven, after victory won, May I reach heaven's joy so bright and sound.

Thou art the holy first in my heart, Thou art the holy first in my heart.

And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God the Father and the fellowship of God the Holy Spirit be with us all now and always. Amen.
